The second session of the World Outreach Study will be observed in the First Christian Church Sunday evening at 8 o'clock.

This is a continuation of the study started last Sunday and deals with the work of the Brotherhood of the Disciples of Christ as it relates to missions at home and abroad.

The series of eight lessons, four this month and two in November, was planned by the World Outreach Committee of the local church.

Sumner Criss is chairman of the committee. Although he is quite ill in a Nashville Hospital, he had the program well organized before he became ill. Mrs. James Rudy Albritten is the supervisor of the studies.

All members of the family are included in this program, and a nursery is provided for the little children. Teachers head each age group and a sack supper is set for 6 o'clock. Classes are over at 7:30.

Any person interested in the work that is being done in the mission study is welcome to join the classes.

Ed West, owner of the market, said that balloons, potatoe chips, Pringles, and bubble gum will be given away free as well as rings for the kids.

Hot chocolate and cookies will be served. A large basket of groceries will be given at intervals (twelve baskets in all), as well as a ham and a turkey at 5:00 p.m. on Saturday.

Visitors to the opening are asked to register for these prizes. One need not be present to win.

In addition to the Grand Opening festivities, a full line of quality food products, meats, vegetables and frozen foods will be offered at good prices.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed West invited all their friends, customers and the general public to attend their opening on Friday and Saturday.

Rains Failed To Postpone Opening Of Fire Season

Recent rains did not postpone the official opening of Kentucky's fire season on October 1, according to fire guard Wade Roberts. Fire crews and tower observers are ready to observe, report, and suppress any fires which may occur during the fall fire season.

Fire Guard, Wade Roberts, announced that his county crew will consist of Elbert Outland and Rudy Brown. The fire towers will have Mrs. Ruth Ferguson at Cherry and Mrs. Lyman Dixon at the Kirksey tower. Both of these ladies have considerable experience at observing and reporting fires in the county.

Roberts urges all persons to be careful with fire this fall, and to observe the Kentucky Burning Law which prohibits any person to set fire to or to procure another to set fire to any brush, leaves, grass, or debris within 200 feet of any woodland except between the hours of 4:30 p.m. and twelve midnight.

This law refers to the fire season months of October, November, December, March, April, and May.

The purpose of the law is to stop reckless burning and to stop burning during the driest and hottest portion of the day. After 4:30 p.m. the wind is calmer, the temperature is cooler, and there is more moisture in the air. Therefore a fire does not start or burn as quickly as it would during the heat of the day.

Anyone wishing to report a fire should call the fire tower at 753-5701 during the day and Wade Roberts at 753-5491 at night.

Saturday Is Last Day Of Series Drive

Tomorrow, Saturday, is the final report day in the membership campaign of the Murray Civic Music Association. All workers are urged to return their kits to their captains or to headquarters by noon Saturday. Reports to date show an increased interest in the series after a very successful concert season last year.

Two of the principal attractions for next season on the Murray concert series will be Lorn Hollander, brilliant young pianist and the Karlov Choral - a male chorus of 16. A third concert will be added at the close of the drive. Murray members may also attend the concert series in Paducah, Paris and Martin, Tenn. at no extra cost.

Murray State College students are entitled to attend all these concerts on their activity cards.

There are no single admissions sold to any one concert and membership should be secured during this one campaign week. Headquarters for the drive is in the Bank of Murray and interested persons may obtain their memberships by contacting the volunteer workers or by mailing checks to headquarters to day. Adult memberships are $7.50 and students $4.00. Further information on the concert series can be obtained by telephoning 753-1958.

Delegates from the Women's Association of College Presbyterian Church attended the Fall Meeting of Western Kentucky Presbyterian Society which was held in Princeton at the First Presbyterian Church on Wednesday. Mrs. Paul Lynn, local president, and Mrs. Alford Lindsey, president elect, were accompanied by Mrs. James Fee, Mrs. Vernon Campbell and Mrs. Henry McKee.

Program materials for 1965 were presented and reports were cleverly presented from the National Meeting held during the summer at Purdue University in West Lafayette, Indiana.

Mrs. George Hubbard, Calvert City, president of the Presbyterian Society, presided at Wednesday's session.

Firemen are called Thursday afternoon.

Murray firemen were called Thursday at 2 p.m. to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Keys Keel at Meadowlark and Sycamore Streets.

Fire Chief Flavio Robertson said Keel was repairing a roof of an outbuilding with tar when it caught on fire. By the time the firemen arrived, the fire on the roof was out, but some tar was still burning on the ground.

Ends Program For Year; New Ford Police Car Is Purchased

The Murray City Council last night approved additional paving inside the city with some repaving scheduled. Most of the paving program was carried out earlier in the summer and the shorter program to be done this fall will conclude the paving for this year.

Thoroughbred Terrace, which extends north from the College Farm Road will be paved on a cost-share basis. Fifth Street from Poplar to Main and Maple from Fourth to Sixth, will be repaved. The city will assume all of the cost of repaving.

Poplar Extended, a short stretch about a half block long will also be paved. This is the area from the power sub-station on Poplar west to 16th Street.

Whitnell Sub-Division is also scheduled to be paved as soon as curb and gutter work is completed. This paving was scheduled for early in the summer, on a cost share basis, but was held up because of the curb project.

In other action the council passed two ordinances designed to make use of the City Sanitary Land-Fill site more orderly. One ordinance sets the hours that citizens may use the site. Dumping is prohibited from sundown until the next morning and on weekends from sundown Saturday until Monday morning.

The other ordinance prohibits dumping of car bodies at the site and also large stumps. Stumps may be taken to the site with approval of Rex Billington, City Sanitary.

Seen & Heard Around MURRAY

Regardless of the political affiliation a person might have, he should respect whatever another person might believe.

We think it is deplorable that a person of the stature of Stom Thummond should come to Murray and be met by the juvenile boozing of young men who forget that this is not a college election, but a national election.

Boozing a political speaker is nothing but ill manners and indicates a lack of tolerance of the other person's views.

We are not particularly a fan of Stom Thummond but he is an American citizen who has the privilege of expressing his views.

If the young men who boozed him want to make a speech, let them. We rather suspect that boozing is the extent of their ability to express themselves vocally.

We wish to have nothing to do with boozers and hecklers. It merely speaks of ill breeding.

Such childish pranks as tearing posters are being reported.

Full Scale Park East Of Barkley

CADIZ, Ky. (UPI) — Gov. Edward T. Breathitt announced Wednesday plans for the development of a full-scale vacation park on the eastern shore of Barkley Lake.

During a luncheon speech to civic leaders, the governor said the facilities of the park would include a resort lodge and pool, a boat dock, cottages, a golf course, a picnic and camping ground, swimming facilities, a playground and other recreational advantages and service facilities.

Breathitt said the state right now is in the final stage of negotiations with the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers to lease approximately 1,800 acres of land for the Barkley Lake State Park. He added that the master plan for long-term development is being prepared.

Breathitt set up his seventh temporary state capital office at Cadiz today.

He rode into town this morning in a fire engine which met him at the edge of town, while a high school band played a welcome.

The governor opened his office in the Trigg County courthouse, but took time out to visit Cadiz High School.

When he closes up shop here today, the governor will go to his hometown of Hopkinsville to spend the night.

Thursday is Gov. and Mrs. Terry Sanford Day in Hopkinsville and a rally is scheduled at the fairgrounds to honor the North Carolina governor and his wife, the former Margaret Rose Knight of Hopkinsville.

Use, Physical Force In School Argued

By DAVID NYDECK
UPI Education Specialist

Spare the rod and spoil the child or use the rod and lose control of the child. Which is correct. Educators and other experts argue on both sides of the question. Perhaps there is no single answer. A separate judgment is needed for each situation.

What is the situation in a public school. Teachers generally are not permitted to use physical force as a punishment. They are usually allowed to use force to protect other children, adults, or themselves.

The laws do vary in different states and often within local communities of a state. The variation goes from the extremes of allowing corporal punishment to permitting no force whatsoever. The best way to find out about local laws is to ask the school administrator or examine the school board policies.

The courts have had a major role in this issue. They have decided on various occasions that the teacher is the local parent. This means that the teacher has the same rights and responsibilities as parents. This would imply that reasonable physical force is allowed but the force should not involve unreasonable physical harm.

Let's look at this problem without relation to the law. What is proper educational procedure. Physical force is usually unnecessary unless it is to protect another individual. Parents generally react to spanking in order to relieve their own anger. This probably satisfies their temper. The child is rarely as upset by the pain as by the understanding that their parents are upset.

There are certainly more effective and appropriate punishments. Adults should consider the nature of the child's misbehavior and then design a punishment which has a relation to the wrong action. This approach will usually bring better results than unrelated punishment. A child who refuses to go to sleep at the proper time might be punished by having him miss a desired activity as he might rest. This is more effective than a spanking or taking away his allowance.

Children tend to copy adults when they respect. If a parent uses physical force as a punishment, it is not unusual for the child to use force with his friends. He will find it difficult to understand that fighting is wrong. After all, if his parents can hit, why can't he?

Teachers are in the same position as parents. They have the advantage of being trained to handle children. A teacher who resorts to physical force probably lacks patience and the ability to work with the particular child.

This is not meant to imply that physical force is always wrong. Force is necessary in some situations in order to protect individuals and property from injury. It is sometimes necessary for self-defense. There are even times when a child must be protected from his own actions.

NOTICE

I, Bill Stubblefield, would like to take this opportunity to announce my candidacy for Calloway County School Board Member from the New Concord School District, subject to election November 3, 1964.

I am the son of the late Porter and Grace McClain Stubblefield, I'm married to the former Jimmie Gingles, daughter of Lee and Callie Black Gingles of Murray, Ky. We have two children, Kathy Jo, age 12, in the 7th grade, and Jimmy Kirt, age 6, in the 1st grade. They both attend the New Concord Elementary School.

I have lived my entire 38 years in the New Concord School District, in the Cherry Corner Community. I graduated from New Concord High School in the class of 1944. My occupation is dairy farming. I am a member of the Calloway County Farm Bureau, and have served as a Director for the past 6 years, a member of the New Concord Adult Farmer Class, and a member of the New Concord Parents Club. I am a member of the Church of Christ, my family and I worship with the Green Plains congregation.

I worked as a Reporter for the Calloway County ASC office for 5 years, working mostly in this district.

I seek this office because I am interested in the future education of all children. Having a boy and girl of my own in school I feel that I am acquainted with the problems of today's schools. I am running entirely upon my own. I'm not running for or against any individual or group of individuals. I have made no promises or commitments. Should you choose to elect me on Nov. 3, God being my helper, I pledge to serve you, the people of New Concord School District, honestly and to the best of my ability.

Your Vote and Support Will Be Greatly Appreciated

— BILL STUBBLEFIELD

Dear Abby . . .

Same Old Story!

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am now a high school freshman and I have all new teachers, but I still have the same old problem. The very first day of school, the English teacher took one look at my name and said, "Oh, you're MARVIN'S brother . . . I am going to expect a lot from you!" All through grammar school the teachers called me either MARVIN or SIDNEY because they had my two older brothers, and they were both outstanding students. I am not a bad student, but it is hard to live up to an older brother's reputation. I am so sick of being known as MARVIN'S brother, or SIDNEY'S brother, that I wish I could go a thousand miles away and have my own identity. Why are teachers so stupid?

"MYSELF": Teachers are not so "stupid" as they are thoughtless. Almost everyone who has had older sisters or brothers has had to walk the same path. Perhaps you should be grateful that you had two good acts to follow, instead of two bad actors.

DEAR ABBY: I wish you would put in your column about young couples who make a public display of their affection for one another. This lovely young couple has been married four years now, and they still behave as though they were entirely alone. They are intelligent, well-educated, refined and sensitive people, Abby. It is good to know that they love each other, but their gestures are so brazen in the presence of others that it is embarrassing.

ONE WHO LOVES THEM: DEAR ONE: Married couples have sufficient opportunities to express their affection for each other privately. Intelligent, refined and sensitive people respect the feelings of others. This couple hardly deserves the adjectives you used to describe them.

DEAR ABBY: Three months ago I met a pretty nurse and we have been going together ever since. She has lived with another man for the past two years in an intimate but unexciting (she claims) relationship. She is now dividing her time between us. She says she loves me, but she continues to live with this man. She says it would be impractical for her to move out. I am very fond of her and want her to devote herself completely to me. Would it be advisable for me to insist on her total loyalty and risk losing her? Or should I knowingly share her and leave things as they are? Please ignore the question of morality and answer me frankly.

IN DOUBT: DEAR IN DOUBT: One who is

Mrs. Lennis Hale Presides At Goshen WSCS Meet Tuesday

Mrs. Lennis Hale opened the October meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Goshen Methodist Church held on Tuesday evening at the church by offering a prayer for missionaries having birthdays on that day.

An inspiring devotion taken from the book on the "World Federation of Methodist Women" was given by Mrs. John B. Watson. The scripture used for the devotion, "The Tree of Life," was taken from Rev. 22:2.

"Blest Be The Tie" was sung by the group with Mrs. George Rhea at the piano.

Mrs. Purdon Lovett, Mrs. J. R. Rhodes, Mrs. George Rhea, and Mrs. Lennis Hale gave the interesting program entitled "Mothers of Other Cultures."

Talks were made concerning the changing role of women, the United Nations and women, Christian Mis-

LETTER URGES

ation an alternate corridor for the location of the Jackson Purchase Turnpike.

This corridor, labeled (2) on the enclosed map, has several obvious advantages over the tentative corridor running from Kentucky Dam to Fulton. I will try to outline our thoughts on some of them.

By swinging the corridor slightly south, a section of Western Kentucky, principally Calloway County, will be served by a high-type road. This section under the first corridor proposal will be almost isolated from the rest of the Purchase area. At the present time, a major part of our tourist trade is from the Boonville section of Missouri, entering at Fulton and using the Blood River section of Kentucky Lake. This traffic would be diverted to an area north of their normal pattern.

It is our belief that the corridor into Kentucky Lake State Park, the Between the Lakes National Recreation Area and the new Barkley Lake Park, will present a much greater economic future, and enhance the sale of bonds to build the Turnpike. With ten million visitors a year entering the Between the Lakes Area and the new Barkley Lake Park, the Central Administration and Reception Center located on Highway 68 west of Golden Pond, this area, without doubt, will be the greatest entry point, and therefore offer the greatest potential for toll users. We would advocate ample interchanges on both sides of the Lakes, and completely free use of the area inside the Recreation Area. A four-lane scenic highway is planned by TVA for the 68 corridor.

By intersecting Interstate 24 southeast of Princeton, the Purchase Turnpike would become a tolling to users, both to Nashville and Louisville. This routing would give Hopkinsville a direct route to the new Mississippi River Bridge at Dyersburg and the entire south-west. It would also give the ultimate usage to Fulton, Murray, Mayfield, Benton, Cadiz, since mileage to both Nashville and Louisville would be greatly shortened. This routing would be a great asset to Murray State College and Western State Hospital.

This suggested corridor would completely fulfill the promise of Governor Breathitt to build a major highway to SERVE MURRAY, Benton, Mayfield and Fulton. This corridor will open the Western Area to Industrial Expansion and greater travel business. This route would mean a new and vital park at Kenlake.

We urge you to give this routing the utmost consideration, and request that a feasibility study be conducted as soon as possible.

Cordially yours,

MURRAY CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

James L. Johnson,

Executive Secretary

right side where he struck the end of a concrete culvert. The car was turned around and then went through a barbed wire fence and struck a utility pole, knocking it down. The car continued on into a field where it finally came to rest after turning over.

Trooper Stephenson said that the route traveled by the car from the time it went off the road to the left until it came to rest measured 35 feet and 10 inches.

Carson was thrown clear of the car over it had struck the utility pole and about thirty feet beyond the pole.

He was treated at the Murray Hospital here and was then sent to Memphis as by a Max Churchill ambulance. He is thought to be suffering from severe internal injuries.

James M. Churchill, driver of the ambulance, reported this morning that as he went through Paris, Tennessee that he had an accident with a truck at Market and Ruff Streets.

Paris officials said that Churchill told them that the traffic light was red but that he continued since he had his red light on, and hit the truck with a glancing blow damaging the right front fender of the ambulance.

The patient was immediately taken to Nobles Hospital in Paris, to be checked for further injuries, but there were apparently none so they proceeded on to Memphis.

Churchill had asked for a police escort through Paris this morning but arrived at the Paris city limits before the police escort arrived. He continued through Paris where he had the accident at about 11:30 this morning.

Trooper Stephenson said that an investigation is continuing on the accident and did not say whether other persons were involved or not. Compton was alone in his automobile at the time of the accident.

Impatience Is Mark Of This Age

By LOUIS CASSELS
 In our personality-based, tightly-timed world, few words arouse more negative reactions than "wait." None of us likes to wait. We want to get on with it... to see results NOW.
 This impatience is characteristic of our age, and few people think of it as a moral defect.
 But if sin is defined as that which separates men from God, the Bible plainly brands impatience a sin. And it teaches, conversely, that those who would know God must be prepared to wait.
 "Be still before the Lord, and wait patiently for Him," says the 37th Psalm. "Fret not yourself; it tends only to evil... but those who wait for the Lord shall possess the land."
 The book of Lamentations offers similar counsel:
 "The Lord is good to those who wait for Him, to the soul that seeks Him. It is good that one should wait quietly for the salvation of the Lord."
 The prophet Isaiah put the same thought into poetic words which the late President John F. Kennedy loved to quote:
 "They who wait for the Lord shall renew their strength;
 "They shall mount up with wings like eagles,
 "They shall run and not be weary,
 "They shall walk and not faint."
 In Biblical usage, waiting is a form of faith. To "wait for the Lord" is to rely upon His hidden hand to uphold you, even when everything seems to be going wrong. It is to be confident that He will act, in His own time and His own way, to answer the prayers of His people.
 The Old Testament prophets and psalmists knew from first-hand experience that God's ways are often inscrutable, and that His timing can put a severe strain on faith.
 That is why they depicted patience as the pathway to knowledge of God.
 "You will never draw nigh unto God," they said in effect, "if you give up on Him too quickly. He will not jump through hoops at your beck and call. But He IS there and He will come through if you are humble enough and trusting enough to wait."
 New Testament writers also attach the highest importance to patience. They list it repeatedly among the "Christian virtues," along with faith, hope and charity.

An investment in Your Future ATTEND CHURCH

"For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also"

Generations

Isn't it grand when the whole family reunites on holidays or on anniversaries! How good to see grandparents and great grandparents and the new crop of babies. Seeing them all together gives you a feeling of continuity, and a sense of oneness with all creation.

It gives you, also, a glimpse of God's plan in the life cycle. When you see the off-spring of the patriarch grandfather, you marvel at the great legacy he is bequeathing the world. All the children that have issued from him are in themselves a great contribution to the world of mankind.

There is marvelous potential in all these spirits. The great things they will do thrill your heart when you contemplate them.

This legacy of lives and spirit can be strengthened, sweetened and nourished by the church. We invite you to take your family to church this week.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.
